SUBJECT - Election of a non-official President to Nanjangud Municipal Council

I have the honour to forward herewith, in original, the following three communications with their enclosures on the above subject received from the President, Municipal Council, Nanjangud and to state as follows -

H C 3/41-42 dated the 5th July 1941
H C 5/41-42 dated the 5th July 1941

2 In my opinion, the letter of the Law Secretary No L 897/Ml 62-40-4 dated the 23rd July 1940 is clear on the point and authorises the Municipal Council to elect its own Non-official President after its reconstitution The Council was reconstituted with effect from the 16th May 1941 (Vide Government Notification No L 7954/Ml 108-40-10 dated the 8th May 1941) In the circumstances, it was quite open to the new Municipal Council to proceed straight away to elect a President But from the copies of the two resolutions received with the President's letters, it is clear that the Council has some doubts on the point The President has accordingly asked me to refer the matter to Government for their orders as desired by the Municipal Council

3 From the demi-official letter of the President, it appears that there is a keen conflict of opinion among the Councillors regarding the election of a Non-official President, but from the resolution passed it is seen that a majority of the Councillors

ın favour of the proposal At present, the Revenue Divisıon Offıcer ıs the Ex-offıcio Presıdent of the ıcıpalıty and he wıll have to vacate hıs seat on the ıcıpal Councıl ıf the latter elects a Non-offıcıal Present

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedıent servant,

Deputy Commıssıoner,
